I CRU DEL BAROLO

Lugano – Wednesday, 11 October 2017

Barolo has long been known as “the King of Wines and the Wine of Kings” – thanks to Italy’s first (and last) kings loving this robust red.

Made from only the best Nebbiolo grapes, a glass of Barolo involves intense, concentrated flavors of fruit which are complemented with a vibrant acidity and refined tannins. The favorable positioning and mixture of limestone and sandstone soils in Piedmont provide the greatest terroir to create wines of great finesse and potency. During this special tasting we will compare three iconic Barolo producers: Paolo Scavino, Chiara Boschis and Brovia. Each of these wines fully reflect the immense richness, great personality and outstanding characteristics produced by their vineyards in Castiglione Falletto and Monforte d’Alba.
