

CHÂTEAU DE LA TOUR

Dinner with the owner - François Labet

Geneva – Thursday, 22 February 2018

For the first time at ARVI, we will be hosting one of our renowned tasting dinners paired with the magnificent wines of Burgundy. We have selected the prestigious property – Château de la Tour – to inaugurate our Burgundy-based tastings. The Domaine's General Director, François Labet will be gracing us with his presence at the Tosca Restaurant on Thursday, 22 February 2018 in Geneva.

Château de la Tour boasts an illustrious and centennial history. Built within the famed Clos de Vougeot enclosure, the Domaine remains as the only producer who can vinify, refine and bottle this Grand Cru from within the Clos' walls. Produced from Burgundy's legendary Pinot Noir grape variety, the Château only crafts about 25,000 bottles of their classic cuvée and only 3,000 bottles of their masterful Vieilles Vignes cuvée.

The greatest wine expert in Burgundy, Alan Meadows, is actually the only wine critic who has ever tasted wines from Château de la Tour. While his ratings are often on the conservative side, he has rewarded the Clos Vougeot Vieilles Vignes wine with 95-points for both the 2013 and 2015 vintages. In fact, this was the same score that he gave the famed La Tache 2013 and Grands Echezaux 2015 of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti...

Specifically, for this event, François Labet has selected a unique and rare vertical to share with you!
